D G
You are lovely, in your house

D
I'm satisfied as your presence
C D

Washes over me

Every morning I wake up thirsty for a

Taste to satiate my spirit's need

Bm A/G D/G

I love you, I love you

A city crescendo

You're the rumbling timpani

Reverberating elevating life from these stones

I cannot help myself I'll be the trumpet section

I'll be the rowdy cymbals crashing your name

I love you, I love you

G

You are gorgeous you are good

You're my refuge in this world

More than riches, more than gold

More than favor, you alone

You're my Lover you're my comforter

You lift my chin up and

Speak life to my soul

Lets run away, drink from you river

Sing on your mountain, dance till dawn
